

CHIEF'S CHALLENGE 2012

In order to earn this year's Chief's Challenge patch, print out and complete 5 of the following activities. Bring completed form to Spring Outing and turn in to receive Chief's Challenge Patch.

- Name the eight state recognized American Indian tribes in North Carolina.
- Look up how many American Indians currently live in North Carolina, and how that compares to other states.
- Identify on a state map the region of NC where these eight tribes predominately live.
- At a tribal meeting, explain to your tribe what role was played by an American Indian in the creation of the Y Guides Program.
- Big Brave and child research the Trail of Tears and report to your tribe at a meeting.
Were there American Indians who were not removed during the 1800's?
- Big Brave and child visit the website of one North Carolina's recognized American Indian tribes and report what you have learned at a tribal meeting (A good starting point is the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs web page)
- Learn to say "Hello" in a American Indian language and use it in place of "How-How" at a tribal meeting.
- Research how American Indians lived in North Carolina during the past.
What kind of homes did they build and live in?
What type of clothing did they wear?
